An examination of the dist of military department Contractors

The accompanying note by the Assistant Comptroller, Military Branch and the statements referred to therein are submitted herewith for Dewan's information and orders. This is in accordance with verbal instructions received some weeks back. The preparations of the statements has taken somewhat longer time than originally anticipated.

2. The action that seems called for is

(a) To ask the Chief Commandant or the Military Secretary as the case may be . as to who the firms of P.D.Lord & Co., Charles Littlewood & Co., and Weight-Worth Morgan & Co., really are, and who on behalf of those firms actually transacted business with Government.

(b) To ask the Chief Commandant or the Military Secretary, as the case may be, as to who the persons Charles and Lacey actually are, and whether before suppli were ordered from them, it was ascertained ~~whether~~ that they were really men doing business in the lines in which they .. dealt with Government.

(c) To ask the Comptroller to obtain a statement from T.B.Lakshmiah, clerk of his office as to what interest he has in the contracts of Adeppa and Charles of whose bills he received payment on many occasions.

(d) To ask the Chief Commandant to ob-obtain a statement from Dorasami Moodr: of his office as to what interest he has in the contract of Weightworth Morgan & Co, of whose bills he received payment on many occasions. After these statements are obtained, further enquiries may be held if Government think necessary.

(c) To ask Comptroller to get a statement from T.B.Lakshmiah and C.Ragunatha Rao of his office regarding the circumstances under which they have acted as Contractors to the Military Department.

4. Action will be taken in the Financia Department or in the Comptroller's Office on the above lines on receipt of orders .. from the Dewan.

Supplies and Services of Military Department.

5 I herewith submit statements for the two years 1908-09 and 1909-10, and for the 5 months of the current year, showing the names of the Firms and individuals, from whom purchases are made for the Military Services, and the kinds of articles purchased. The statement is not an exhaustive one, in as much as the names of many of the petty suppliers who are numerous, have been omitted from it. It is ascertained by roughly going over the .. bills of such suppliers, that the total amount of supplies obtained from any one of them is not large. The kinds of ... articles purchased for the various branches of the Department, are also too numerous to be enumerated, and therefore, those detailed in the statement should be regarded as the main articles in the bills from which the statement is prepared. Many of the smaller bills of such of the Firms and individuals as are regarded as recognised, and are included in the statemer have been omitted, so that the statement is not to be taken as an exhaustive one in any respect. But the information cor contained therein appears to be sufficient for our purposes.

The following observations are made from the statements.-

(a) The purchases are often made in very small quantities, which indicates that the requirements are not properly estimated. The Government thereby loses the benefit of discount that would be paid by Firms on wholesale or large purchases Eg. Boots. Jo-3061

(b) Again the same kind of article is purchased in large quantities from more than one Firm. In such cases, it cannot be said that the 2nd and subsequent purchases, were supplemental ones that could not have been foreseen and purchased all together. It is not likely that all the Firms would have supplied at the same rate. In all such cases the Government loses the advantage of purchasing it at the most favourable rate e.g., Blankets, drill &c.

(c) From the miscellaneous nature of the articles supplied by some Firms and individuals (mostly the latter), it will be seen that the Firms or individuals are not likely to deal generally in all those articles, but perhaps purchase or in some other manner, get them from others, and supply to Government. In such cases, the Government is a loser by what it indirectly pays to the middleman.

(1) Yacub Sheriff.
(2) Govinda Sahuji.
(3) Adappa &c.

(d) Many articles of Mill manufacture are purchased from Firms or individuals, and not directly from the Mills or their wholesale Agents. e.g., Khaki serge from Govinda Sahuji, blankets from Yacoob Sheriff, Serge from Weight Worth Morgan & Co., &c.,

NOTES.

(e) As the purchases are not made on any recognised principle, it may be possible that some Firms so called that supply articles, may not have any real existence at all as such, except on bills presented for payment of supplies made. At any rate, the statement includes the names of some Firms that are not to be found in the ~~xxxxxxxx~~ Directories of the places in which they are expected to be found. The words "Not known" Probably bogus are entered against the ... name of such Firms in the list.

As regards certain individuals also supplying articles to Government, it is doubtful whether they are not simply Commission Agents for the articles supplied by them. Against them the words 'Not bonafide dealers' are entered.

(f) There is reason to believe that subordinate officials of some departments of Government assist the supplier of articles in some stage or other of the transaction between the submission of the tender for supply, if any is called called for, and the final drawing of the money from the Treasury for the articles supplied. The rule in the India Army Regulations on this point viz., that no subordinate of any office or Department or any official in receipt of any salary from Government may be in any way pecuniarly interested in a contract, nor may he become security for a contractor or assist him in the preparation of any tender or account may be adopted here also.

4 Some very interesting facts can be gathered from the papers sent by the Chief Commandant:

(a) P. D. Lord & Co and Weightwork Morgan & Co both got their ornamental letter forms printed at the same press in Madras viz Raithby & Co.

(b) Both firms address the Chief Commandant as Gentlemen.

(c) Both firms use the same rubber stamp which reads "All correspondence &c should be Addressed to our Branch Office, Shoolai P.O., Bangalore."

There can therefore be no doubt that the same man is at the bottom of both these firms.

5 It is also curious that the initials of the firm of P. D. Lord & Co are the same as those of clerk P. Dorai Swami Also the letters of P. D. Lord & Co are signed by D'sam which looks almost a contraction of Doraiswami.

It would be of interest to know who D'sam really is. If the Dewan approves we may send some of the letters to the local Police and ask them to trace D'sam & report his identity to us.

Lord & Co)" — Can Krishnaswamy Naidu explain how his rubber stamp came to be used in letters issued by the firm of P.D. Lord & Co? If not, then some one else used to write the letters for him & despatch them — Who was this man?

Vide two letters A & M.

(3) Is P. Doraisami's brother P. Kulasekhara Naidu a partner in the firm of Wagstaff Morgan & Co? Is he the same person as Kutti"?

15. Asst Secy will kindly have the above points cleared up by a further reference to the Police Deptt.

16. The point is that P. Doraisami has declared that his brother Kulasekhara is a partner in W. M & Co. Krishnaswamy Naidu's statement seems to imply however that he is the sole proprietor. If Krishnaswamy adheres to his statement (viz. that no brother of Doraisami was at any time a partner of his) we shall have P. Doraisamy in for a clearly false statement.

17. The truth seems to be is this: P. Doraisamy has personated both W. M & Co & P. D. Lord & Co. Not daring to say that he is absolutely unconnected he has brought in a brother. But the brother's connection is perhaps a total fiction. If that brother was "Kutti" he was not a partner but "was working with Naidu for three months in his shop for nothing at all".

Let the three points stated above be cleared up

I leave for Nilgiris Dec 15th and return on the 19th Jan

Written statement of T. B. Lakshmanah

Mr. Adeppah had asked me on several occasions to cash the store supply bills in the State Treasury as he found it convenient to cash them therefrom me, I being nearer to the Treasury. To oblige him, I had to do so Beyond this I had no other interest.

Regarding Cashing of Mr Charles's Store bills, as I was financing him during his contract period, he used to ask me to cash them and take the money. The understanding was that he has to pay me half the profits if any after the contract period is over.

I was not a recognised contractor in the Military Department but as I used to go to the Transport workshop on one or more occasions, I was asked to supply some urgent things and so I had to supply.

As I was financing the contractor (Mr Charles) which fact I have already explained I was occasionally going to the office of the Transport Corps Workshop in connection with the bills for articles supplied by him I was asked by Mr. J. E. Tate to supply some stores I did not pay any commission to anyone to secure any contract

Sir,

In reply to your confidential letter No Fl,4948 dated the 24th March last, I have the honor to state that I have made enquiries regarding the Firms and the individuals referred to therein and obtained the following information regarding them.

2. P.D.Lord & Co, who were doing business at Shoolay, Bangalore, have wound up their business some time ago and I hear that the Agent of the late Firm, Mr Sikhamani Moodr, is doing business at Madras now.

3. Charles Littlewood & Co supplied coke to the Command-ant of the Imperial Service Transport Corps(Mr J.E.Tate) in August 1908, for use in the Transport Corps Workshops. The pay-ment was made by the Commandant from his permanent advance. The Military Stores proper have not had any transactions with them. Their whereabouts are not known and a reference may be kindly made to Mr Tate for any more particulars.

4. Messrs Weightworth Morgan & Co :- This Firm is doing business at Bangalore, as Import and Export Commission Agents in Castle Street, Shoolay. The proprietor of the Firm is Mr Krishnasamy Naidoo who is a Contractor.

5. Mrs E.Lacy used to canvass for orders for Messrs Killick Nixon & Co Bombay, The Muir Mills Co Cawnpore, and Buckingham Mills Madras.

GPB—3,000—24-3-11

She lived in No 7, Rest House Road, Bangalore. I hear that she left for Ootacamund with her sick husband some months ago and has not returned to Bangalore.

6. Mr Charles is the brother of Miss Govindarajaloo, Civil Surgeon. He was a contractor for the supply of Bazaar articles to the Military Stores in the year 1908-09. The rates tendered by him being favourable were accepted as recommended by the then Superintendent Mr Tate. He has not done any business with this Department subsequently and I hear he deals in odds and ends.

7. I enclose the statement obtained from P.Dorasamy Moodr regarding his interest in the contracts of Messrs Weightworth Morgan & Co with my Department. It will be seen that his brother P.Kulasekhara Moodr is a partner of the Firm. But Dorasamy Moodr days he has no interest himself in its business in any way. With regard to his receiving payments for the Firm I find that the Head Accountant of my Office has paid the money to Dorasamy Moodr at the request of the proprietor in a letter addressed to him autho-rising Dorasamy Moodr to receive payments for the Firm. Dorasamy Moodr according used to present the receipts of the Firm in Office and received payments on its behalf from the Head Accountant.

8. With reference to para 5 of your letter, I have to say that enquiries made do not show that any official of my Office is connected directly or indirectly with Government contracts. Nor am I aware of the Officials of any other ~~Department~~ Office so connected with this Department.

Sir,

In reply to your Confidential letter No: FC 6336/G. T. 487-10 of the 26th April 1911, I have the honour to state that the persons mentioned in paras 2 & 4 of my letter No: 3504 dated 19th April 1911, used the present sometimes in the Military stores on behalf of those firms on occasions when consignments were being checked or samples compared. It seems therefore that it may be presumed that they actually transacted business on behalf of the firms. I am not not personally acquainted with any of them.

2. In this connection I have to mention that several representatives on behalf of English and Indian firms call either at my office or at the Military stores to submit samples of articles they deal in. Many of them are frequently changed and it is not possible to say who actually transact business on behalf of firms.

The price and other particulars are always settled by correspondence. I am not therefore particular about ascertaining their antecedents as no advances of money are made to them, and as none is asked to act as the Agent of, or negotiate on behalf of this Department in the matter of purchases of articles. No periodical contracts are entered into with any of them for the supply of any articles of clothing and equipment ment. As long as a person or a firm takes the risk of supplying any article corresponding to the sealed sample of it in the Military Stores, at the rate approved by me, I am not particular who he is or which it is, as no payment is made unless the article is delivered in the Military Stores and is reported to correspond to the approved sample. The annual contracts for tailoring and the supply of Bazaar articles to the Military Stores, are the only periodical contracts given to any one. Tenders are called for these and care is taken that only persons reported upon as reliable & not likely to fail, get them.

Since our father's death, myself and my brother Kulasekhara Moodr. live separately in different portions of our father's house. Every estate belonging to my father was sold for his debts after his death. My brother keeps his earnings for himself and looks after his family and I do the same with my earnings. We have not executed a deed of partition after our father's death. but we live separately on our respective earnings as I said before. Notes Submitted to the D.S.P.

Re.- Weightworth Morgan & Co.,

This company was amalgamated to Wardy & Co., Boot & Shoe makers, Bangalore Cantonment, some ten years ago. The Proprietor of both the Companies is Mr. Krishnaswamy Naidu. It was for 3 or 4 months in a shop in Castle Street, Shoolai, Door No. 8 and Census No. 1352. It was shifted to No. 74, Brigade Road where Wardy & Co., is, two months ago. The sign board reads thus: " Weightworth Morgan & Co., Direct Importers of Foreign goods & Commission Merchants." This is not hung up but kept inside the Wardy & Co., shop.

When I enquired Mr. Krishnaswamy Naidu above named, he said that he is in the habit of giving orders to some people who come to him as Agents for various printing presses here and else-where and getting his letter forms printed; a few samples of which are submitted for kind perusal. The forms I saw in the file are now exhausted. He further says that P. Dorasamy is his particular friend; such as he used to ask him to correspond in his own name on behalf of the Companies.

The only rubber stamp Mr. Naidu has, is the one that contains this.- " Wardy & Co., Boot & Shoe makers, Bangalore." He says that he has supplied iron-safes, Woollen goods etc., to the Commandant's Office but not any hay-presses. Mr. Annu Rama Rao has now asked him to get a sample of the hay-press for approval. No correspondence, says he, exists between him and the Government re the hay presses.

Re.- Dorasamy.

This man is the son of one late Raja Gopal Mudliar who was the Manager of the Municipality, C & M Station. He is a

Clerk

Clerk in the Chief Commandant's Office. He does not get any remuneration nor any sort of consideration for the friendly work he does for Mr. Krishnaswamy Naidu. He lives in Pilliar Street, Shoolai.

Re.- P. D. Lord & Co.,

Mr. Krishnaswamy Naidu is quite ignorant of the existance of a company of the name.

I learnt that there was a Company named " D.P.D. Lord & Co, Photographers, No. 13, Brigade Road, Bangalore Cantonment." D.P.D. Lard was an old man (Eurasian,perhaps) with 2 sons and was a tenant of the Cash Bazaar. He was poor man and he did not pay the rents regularly. He was there for four months. - July,August,September and October 1910. Afterwards, no body. knows where he has gone. Whether P. Dorasamy was working in the above Company or had anything to do with it cannot be ascertained.

N O T E S.

Mr. Krishnaswamy Naidu enquired.

He says that one Kutti, brother of P. Dorasamy, had a rubber stamp reading " All correspondence etc., " This Kutti was for some-time a Railway Station Master, at Bellary (perhaps) and left his appointment a year ago. He was working with Naidu for 3 months, in his shop for nothing at all. But he does not know who " D'Sam " is or who " S.Moni " is. He suspects the writing of the letter " No.2757 " in the file to be that of Kutti.

Naidu says he never bought any good will from any body. He himself invented the name Weightworth, Morgan & Co., This seems strange indeed!

He says he has supplied 24 iron safes to Govt. at Rs. 220/ each. He has not supplied any sort of machines. He knows nothing about the Chaff cutters about which there is a lot of correspondence in the file. He says further that P. Dorasamy was not signing as D. Sam.

Now the points to be made out are the following.-

1. Who is this " D. Sam "?
2. And who is " S. Moni "?
3. Where should"Kutti" be? and who is he?
4. Is there any connection between the above persons?
5. Whether there was any partner to P.D.Lard & Co., Shoolai? (as is stated in the letter of Lard & Co., in the file)
6. Whether P.D.Lard & Co., was trading in machines and other things as is published?

SUBJECT.

1) In para 2 of his note of 18.9.11, M. Jamadakar states "He further says that P. Dorasamy is his particular friend; such as he used to ask him to correspond in his own name on behalf of the companies"

"In his own name" – whose name? Krishnasamy Naidu's or P Dorasamy's?

2) In para 5 of the same note, he also states "Mr. Krishnaswamy Naidu is quite ignorant of the existence of a company of the name (P.D. Lord & Co.)" – Can Krishnasamy Naidu explain how his rubber stamp came to be used in letters used by the firm of P.D. Lord & Co.? If not, then some one else used to write the letters for him & despatch them. Who was this man?

3) Is P. Dorasami's brother P. Kulasekhara Mudaliar a partner in the firm of Weightworth Morgan & Co.? Is he the same person as Kutti?
